Medical Marijuana Mini-Colloquium

February 8, 9-11:45 am, followed by lunch
SPEA Room 167

Panel 1: Evidence on the impact of medical marijuana laws and use

- Alex Hollingsworth, Assistant Professor, School of Public and Environmental Affairs, IU
- Brian Kaskie, Associate Professor, College of Public Health, University of Iowa
- W. David Bradford, Busbee Chair in Public Policy and Professor of Public Administration and Policy, University of Georgia
- Ashley Bradford, Ph.D. candidate, School of Public and Environmental Affairs, IU
- Kosali Simon, Herman B Wells Endowed Professor, School of Public and Environmental Affairs, IU (moderator)

Coffee Break

Panel 2: The promise and pitfalls of legalizing medical marijuana: business, public safety, and public policy issues

- Jim Lucas, Indiana House of Representatives (Dist. 69)
- Chris Daniels, Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys Council
- Bruce Hirsch, Founder and CEO, Califormulations LLC, a company formulating medical cannabis products
- David Scheidemantle, Esq., Lathrop Gage, attorney advising cannabis businesses and providers
- Nicholas Connon, Esq. (moderator)

Lunch + Q&A